Foreword

Pikeville College, which is now in its 75th year of serving Eastern Kentucky as a co-educational body, has grown from a training school to a junior college and finally to a four year degree-granting institution. Throughout its existence Pikeville College has served as the pulse of education in Eastern Kentucky. With the efforts of a devoted faculty and student body the college will continue to move forward, to expand its influence for God, and to contribute intellectually and economically to the area that it serves.

Pikeville College

Seventy-five years ago in Eastern Kentucky there was a great need among the people of these hills for a college. Due to the efforts of three Presbyterian ministers, Pikeville Collegiate Institute which was to become the present college was established in the fall of 1889. Through three-quarters of a century since Pikeville College opened, it has changed the destiny of this area more than anything else that has happened here. It has grown until it now more than fulfills the vision of its founders in meeting the educational needs of this once isolated mountain area.

for 75 Years a Leader

... Preparing Students

Nowhere else are our lives so imprinted as they are during our four years at Pikeville College. It is here that we come as uncertain freshmen, hoping to develop into successful, mature adults. It is our college, that provides us with the opportunities necessary to prepare us in those areas which are vital to future success. The untold hours of note-taking and lecture . . . the endless volumes of reading and research in the library . . . the victories and losses of sports events . . . the beauty and excitement of formal dances . . . the quiet and soul-searching hours of discovering ourselves. All have contributed to the years of preparation which we have chosen to spend at Pikeville College.

Academically . . .

Adequate classroom facilities, and a devoted able faculty provide the background for the educational program at Pikeville College.

Within the buildings which house the college, and through the knowledge and instruction of the faculty, the student develops the potential to achieve his goals. He acquires knowledge which is useful, not just an acquisition of credits, but a composite of "Liberal knowledge". As a famous person once said, "Education is a great monument; without it, the past would be lost, the present stagnated, and the future obliterated."

Pikeville College, which is a Presbyterian related institution, provides spiritual as well as academic guidance.

The college itself has a daily worship service. But in the solitude of the Meditation Chapel students often find the solution to personal problems.

College life is not complete if the Christian emphasis is omitted. The aims of Christian fellowship at Pikeville College are to lead students to Christ, to develop a high degree of Christian character, and to stress potential Christian leadership.

Spiritually . . .

Perhaps the challenge most easily met, and yet the most rewarding, is the challenge of working with people. The close relationship of roommates, the rewarding associations with classmates, and the valued friendship of faculty members and administrators all make important contributions to the personality of each student. Through these social relationships friends are made, interests are broadened and ideas are developed which help each student to become a well-rounded person.

These close relationships are developed on the playing court, on the stage, in the rehearsal hall, and in the dormitories.

Socially . . .

for Tomorrow's

Challenge

Through these doors step tomorrow's leaders. It is here at Pikeville College that we prepare ourselves to achieve professional status. We must meet the challenges and responsibilities of the Space Age in order to make this world of crises and anxiety a world of peace, progress, and hope. We must adjust to the rapid pace of our moving society, and we must gear our ideas to the challenges that lie in the fields of medicine, chemistry, business, and the arts. This blending of mind and character must be achieved, for it is from these halls and through these doors at Pikeville College that tomorrow's hope will walk—today's answer to tomorrow's challenge.

PIKEVILLE, KENTUCKY

Highlander 1965

Dear Faculty, Fellow Students, and Friends:

It is fitting on this, the seventy-fifth anniversary of Pikeville College that this volume be dedicated to the changes that have been characteristic of Pikeville College during this time.

When the first Highlander was published in 1927, Pikeville was a junior college offering only two years of college work leading to a teaching certificate. The student body and faculty were small but the college fulfilled a useful purpose as a Christian institution.

Since that time, Pikeville has become a four-year college, offering two degrees, the A.B. and the B.S.

Increased enrollments down through the years have made it necessary to build new facilities. Among recent additions to the physical plant of the college have been two new dormitories, new faculty apartments, a chapel-library building, and a student activity center. Some renovations have been made in the administration building for needed office and class-room space.

In all these changes, Pikeville College has been able to maintain a reputation for high quality instruction. As enrollments continue to grow, Pikeville College will maintain this high quality instruction and the close personal relationship between faculty and students.

Our congratulations go to the advisors and to the others who have worked with us so diligently to portray these changes on the following pages.

Sincerely,

THE EDITORS

Message From the President

Pikeville College

Pikeville, Kentucky

Pikeville College has made vast strides since its humble founding in 1889. From a one-building and one-teacher preparatory school, it has grown in three-quarters of a century to a fully accredited four-year college, with assets that total over four million dollars, and a school plant that boasts seven major buildings and a thousand-acre farm.

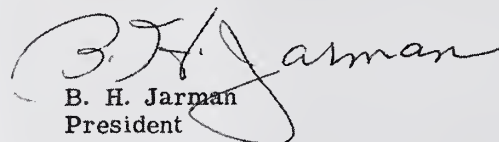

On 4 January 1965, Pikeville College received full-membership status in the Southern Association of Schools and Colleges, culminating seven long years of struggle for this recognition. Your alma mater has membership in the Association of American Colleges, the American Council on Education, and is on the approved list of the American Association of University Women.

Pikeville College graduates are eligible to apply for admission to the nation's finest graduate and professional universities, to be licensed as teachers, and as applicants for professional rating positions in state and federal governmental service.

Pikeville College's star is rising. We increased our enrollment more than twenty per cent this past year. Our students represent eighteen states and three foreign countries. As 1965 graduates, you leave our academic halls to go forth to serve God and Country. Strive to say with the Apostle Paul - "I have fought a good fight; I have finished my course; I have kept the faith."

Our love and our faith are ever yours.

Very sincerely,

The HIGHLANDER

*Yes, we're the staff of The Highlander;
We've traveled long, and we've traveled "fer,"
Carl's pecked till he's thin, John's busted his head,
Our fingers and shoes are worn to a shred.
The Year Book is finished (and we are too),
So now we hand over the Annual to you,
And if our work falls short of perfection,
We submit it to you for your correction.*

The job of reviewing all that takes place on the Pikeville College campus during the school year constitutes a busy schedule for the staff of the Highlander, the college yearbook. Many hours of work are represented in this 39th edition of the Highlander.

Striving to ever raise its standards, the Highlander has added to its pages a student index, cataloguing over 600 names; another new feature is the foreword which has been omitted from Highlanders of recent years.

The newly appointed staff started planning the 1965 Highlander in June, 1964. Photography, copywriting, and layout work hastened, slowed, and then hastened again as the staff met 3 deadlines throughout the year. Finally, in March, the work was finished and the staff and students eagerly anticipated the arrival of the 1965 Highlander, the greatest ever.

The Student Council is the representative group of the entire student body. The four officers are elected at large, and three representatives are elected from each class. The Student Council of 1965 is proud of its accomplishments.

The Council met during the summer and planned the Freshman Orientation Week which was enjoyed by all. We saw the telephones installed on all floors in Condit and Memorial Halls, a project begun by the 1964 Council.

The Council has had an active part in sponsoring such activities as Homecoming, Founder's Day, and the Christmas Dance. Road signs were erected for the college by the Kentucky Department of Highways.

Plans were completed for a Spring Dance and a movie of the month.

The aim of the Student Council has been to keep the student body informed of policies and activities of this student organization.

Phi Alpha Theta

PRESIDENT .....	Commodore Craft
VICE PRESIDENT .....	William Minkley
SECRETARY-TREASURER .....	Faith Armstrong
HISTORIAN .....	Jerry Hatfield
FACULTY ADVISOR .....	Calvin P. Jones

With the beginning of school, it was recommended by the new Acting Chairman of the Division of Social Studies that an attempt be made to found a Chapter of Phi Alpha Theta on the Pikeville College campus. Other members of the History Department were agreeable to this suggestion and have worked toward it.

On March 2, 1965, Phi Alpha Theta, the first honorary society at Pikeville College was initiated. The charter members were installed by Dr. Thomas D. Clark of the University of Kentucky in an impressive ceremony in Faith Chapel. Phi Alpha Theta is a national honor society in history whose scholastic requirements are second only to Phi Beta Kappa. To be eligible for membership a student must have completed at least twelve semester hours of history with a 3.1 average or better and must rank in the upper thirty-fifth per cent of his class.

It is expected that a Chapter of Phi Alpha Theta on this campus will be a stimulus to increase the prevailing interest in history, to increase the intellectual atmosphere of the campus, and to help to make Pikeville College into more of a community of scholars.

CHAIRMAN .....	Gail Williamson
CO-CHAIRMAN .....	Robert Allara
SECRETARY-TREASURER .....	Bonnie Caudill
RECORDING SECRETARY .....	Hubert Keen
SPONSOR .....	V. O. Turner
REGIONAL CO-ORDINATOR .....	Flem Messer

The Appalachian volunteers is an organization of approximately 25 college campus units in Eastern and Central Kentucky administered through the council of the Southern Mountains at Berea, Ky. Its purpose is to help those people of Eastern Kentucky, who need and want help, to help themselves. The four general areas of concentration outlined are enrichment programs, a library project, foreign student presentations, and renovation of buildings and grounds. An evaluation program is being conducted in the schools helped. The Pikeville college group has chosen enrichment and renovation for their immediate projects due to available sources. Gail Williamson, campus director, has hopes of expanding the Pikeville College program to all possible areas in the near future.

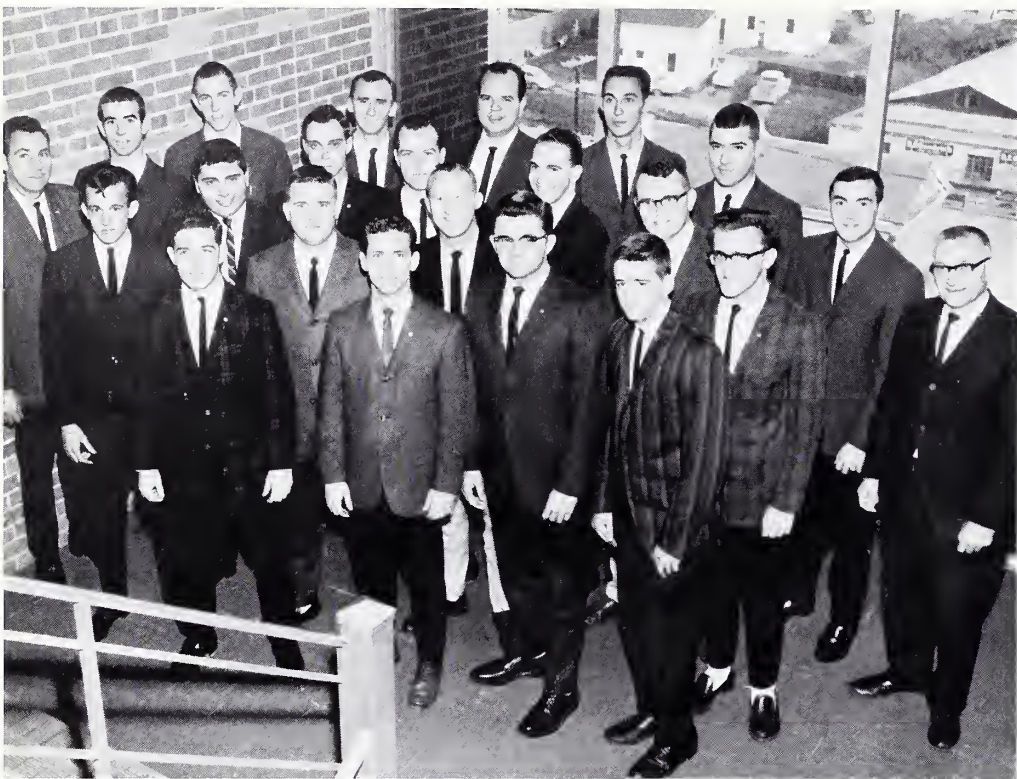

Members of this organization are: Jim Steele, Richard Hockenberry, Carol Ann Jones, Violet M. Daniel, Edith Jones, Linda Gingenback, Mary L. Pierce, Mary Nagle, Hubert Keen, Frank Nagle, Loretta O'Quinn, Linda Gail Brady, Jean Halgren, Pam Young, and Commodore Craft, Jr.

Since this is a volunteer organization many other students have participated in its projects.

Circle K

The Circle K Club of Pikeville College has enjoyed a position of eminence in the community that it has never before experienced as the past year has been filled with many successful projects.

Nick Frazier provided a fine example of leadership and under his guidance the Circle K moved forward. Larry Ashby was elected Governor of the Kentucky-Tennessee District Convention held at May Lodge on Dewey Lake. The convention, itself, was a tremendous success. That a man from Pikeville College was chosen for such a high position illustrates how the club has risen not only in Pikeville but outside the state as well.

Perhaps the most successful project was the Annual Christmas Party for underprivileged children. The support the city gave to this project contributed greatly to its success.

Charles Pugh took the gavel of the President in February after serving as Vice-President under Frazier. Plans are being made at the present to send a large delegation to the District Convention in Gattlinsburg, Tenn.

A community project in the form of a radio program was initiated by the Circle K. The program consisted of news of the Circle K, the Kiwanis Club, and Key Clubs of the area. In addition to the news, the top tunes were played for the enjoyment of the listeners.

If the past year is any indication of things to come, the Circle K has another good year in store. You can bet another good year it will be!

International Relations Club

PRESIDENT .....	Bill Justus
VICE-PRESIDENT .....	Jim Steele
SECRETARY-TREASURER .....	Arthur Craig
REPORTER .....	George Knaell
SPONSOR .....	H. M. Going

The members of the International Relations Club represent all segments of the student body—the chemist, the physicist, the mathematician, the artist, and the philosopher as well as the historian and the political scientist.

The members of this group, recognizing the vital need for an intelligent public opinion, agree to study and discuss international affairs in an honest effort to clarify their own minds as to present world problems and to undertake such programs and projects as will contribute to (a) better understanding of world affairs on the campus and in the community, and (b) improved relations between nations. They recognize that all students of international affairs do not think and feel alike, and they agree to grant as much freedom of thought and expression to their fellow members as they demand for themselves.

The A.A. Page Chapter of the SNEA is the local chapter of the Student National Education Association, the professional Association for college and university students preparing to teach. The SNEA is nationally affiliated with the National Education Association.

The SNEA is one of the largest organizations on campus. The members have worked diligently on projects such as a Christmas party for underprivileged children, the recognition of one teacher whom we feel should receive special recognition, the selection of outstanding student teachers who are members of the organization, and the presentation of a tea in honor of Teaching Career Month.

Tragedy, comedy, drama, farce all of these important phases of stage life are enacted by the PEACH ORCHARD PLAYERS of Pikeville College.

The drama group has created characters from the dramatic tragedy of Shakespeare's "MacBeth" to the slap stick farce of Moliere's "The Imaginary Invalid." The experiences of this fine drama organization have proved to be successful for the Peach Orchard Players will soon be in a National Honorary Fraternity of the Theatre Arts known as Theta Alpha Phi.

The Peach Orchard Players have great hopes for the future of being the most active and talented group on campus. The chief purpose of the club is to entertain, and there are many opportunities open to anyone who is interested in stage production in any way. Let your light shine on the stage.

Gavel Club

To increase poise and ability in public speaking is the purpose of the Gavel Club. Each member is expected to deliver speeches on assigned topics and also be able to respond extemporaneously on subjects assigned at club meetings.

NEWS OF PIKEVILLE COLLEGE

THE RECORD is the official newspaper of Pikeville College published for and by the students of the college, and printed weekly as a special section of the PIKE COUNTY NEWS.

THE RECORD, as an organization, has a system of pins and keys, whereby any member serving for a period of two years is eligible to receive a pin, and after three years may earn a key. As its fund raising project, THE RECORD sponsors an annual Spring Talent Night, featuring only college talent. The purpose of the program is to raise enough money to cover the cost of the keys and pins.

Freshman Week Introduces Students to PC

Freshmen get their first introduction to the college during the week before the upper classmen return for classes. The week is spent visiting the campus buildings and getting to know some of the professors and fellow students.

For the Freshman, the first days on campus are confusing and hectic. Faced with uncertain decisions he must learn hard lessons in self-sufficiency.

These mounting anxieties of registration and the first informal classes leave the Freshman questioning himself about his college career.

Freshman Master Registration Process

Registration holds many problems and worries for the Freshman. Knowing that a mistake will send him back to his instructor, he finds that the slow and cautious approach is the best.

It's Not All Work and No Play

After the long tiring week it is topped off by the annual President's reception and Dance.

After the dancing was over, it wasn't long before the first class bell rang.

Founders Day

1964

On October 8, 1964, Founders Day at Pikeville College was highlighted by an address given by Dr. Kenneth G. Neigh, General Secretary, Board of National Missions of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.

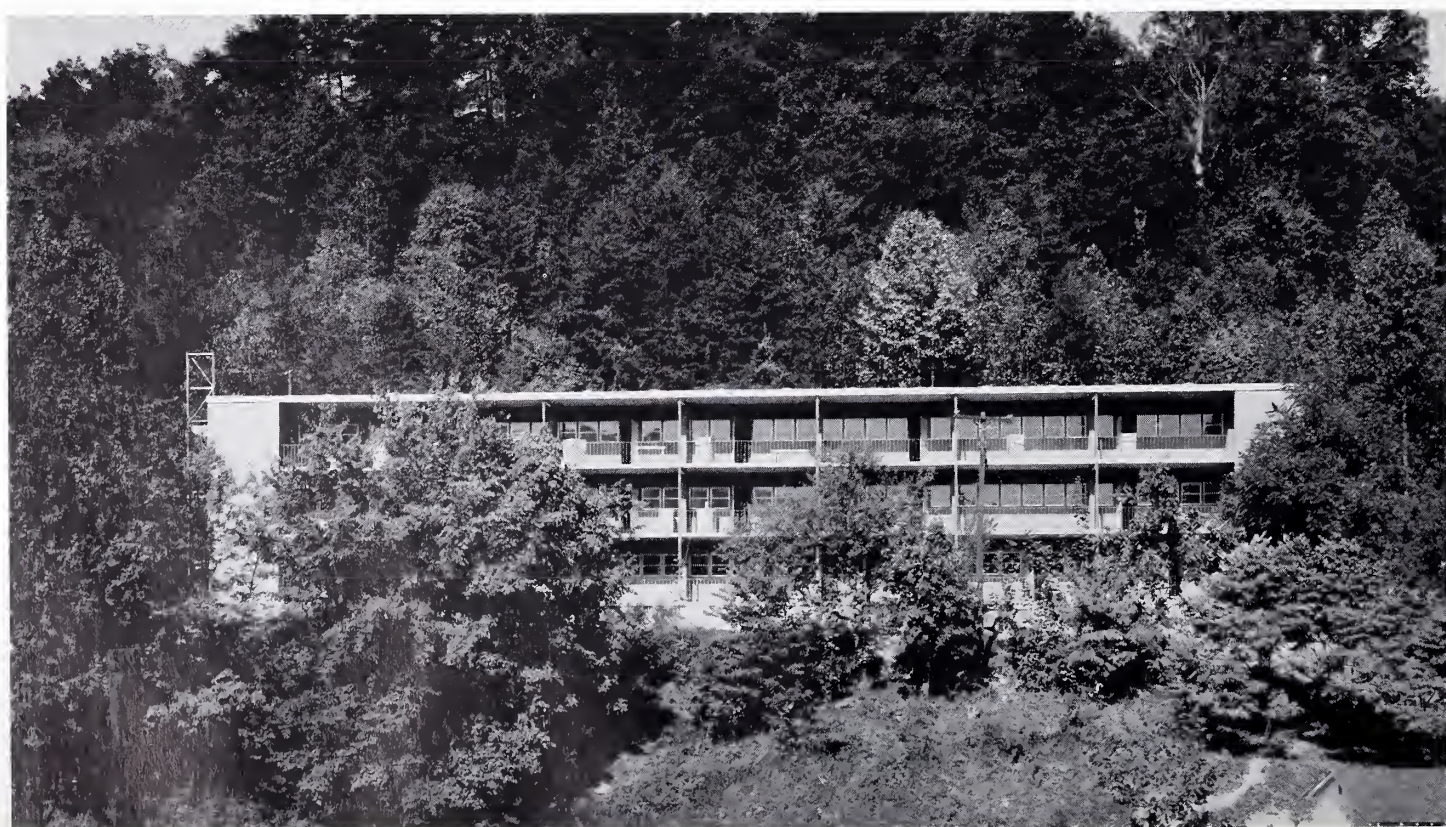

At one-thirty we witnessed the dedication of the Mary I. Spilman Faculty House by Dr. James W. Angell, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Pikeville College.

Open House was followed by a reception at the home of Dr. B. H. Jarman and a Pageant, "History of Pikeville College," in the Faith Chapel.

Library Series

The Library Lecture Series is a means of focusing attention on the newly created Appalachian Cultural Program at O'Rear-Robinson Library. Our primary objective is to engage capable people from diverse fields, in relation to the area, to perform on campus. The agenda for the past months has included the local Writers Guild, Hollis Summers—poet and novelist and John Jacob Niles—world famous folk artist.

Pikeville Concert Association

This year the Concert Association had the largest audiences in its history. The crowds were delighted with the French songs of Varel and Bailly and their Chanteurs de Paris, pleased with the folk singing of Paul and Penny Arnson, and enthralled with the National Opera Company's presentation of Victor Herbert's "The Student Prince." The closing highlight of the season was the concert of the Louisville Symphony Orchestra.

Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities

This is the fourth year that Pikeville College has participated in Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities. Each school is assigned a quota based on enrollment. Juniors, seniors, and graduate students still enrolled in the school are eligible for nomination. Nominees are selected by a campus committee on the basis of Scholarship, (B Average), Citizenship, Participation, and Leadership in academic and extracurricular activities, and general promise of future usefulness to business and society.

This committee, which was composed of faculty and students, felt that these fine young ladies and gentlemen met the requirements listed above.

Future Teachers of the Year

Each year the S.N.E.A. honors those senior members whom we feel have taken an active part in the organization. They are selected on the basis of scholarship, citizenship, activities in the organization, and they must have had student teaching during the present school year. The Future Teachers of the Year are chosen by a committee of the organization, and the president of the organization.

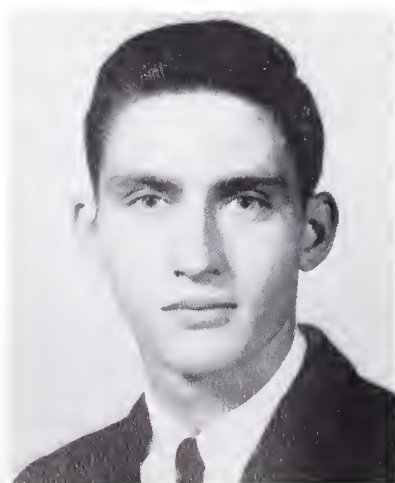

This year the S.N.E.A. is proud to honor six members who have adequately met all qualifications. The Future Teachers of the Year are Sandra Branham, Mary J. Canupp, Gary Johnson, Barbara McCoy, Betty Smith, and Janice Smith.

Mrs. Sandra Fraley Branham, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fraley of Wayland, Ky. Graduate of Wayland High School. Major—Elementary Education.

Boys' Basket Ball Team

JOHN HUGHES, Captain

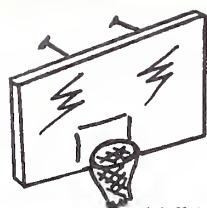

Considering recent striking improvements closely related to basketball, a digression from strict basketball news may perhaps be pardoned. The old weekly thrill of sliding down the muddy incline to the gym in the dark has been transformed into a decorous descent by a well lighted, well graded cinder path, laid by the boys under the direction of coach Hud-on. The Record caused further disturbance in old King Winter's regime, by donating funds which made possible the new steam heat piped from the Huffman-Connolly ice-plant.

Amidst such diversions the playing season started between two local teams, the Orange and the Black, resulting in victory for the Orange. From the talent thus brought out was chosen a team which defeated Wolfpit 45-12. The same team dropped two games to the professionals of Elkhorn by a margin of about 10 points. A series of games are now being played between the Senior and the Junior High, the first resulting in a victory for Junior High 25-21.

This year has seen the development of an aggregation which, since none of them graduate, should give to Pikeville College for next year an athletic machine which may have its proportionate support of the school and of Pikeville.

A Rebuilding Year

Pikeville College's 1964-65 cage team was on the short end of the scoring most of the time but was one of the best hustling teams in years. PC won eight and lost twelve for the season, and placed in the KIAC with a 2-8 mark.

Five of the squad members were freshmen who gained valuable experience in their first campaign. Veterans Doug Fuller and Don Blair provided the rebounding with the bulk of the scoring by Terry Epling and Chuch Taylor.

Individual one-game high marks for the season found Terry Epling scoring the most points with thirty-five against Cumberland College. Terry also connected with the most field goals again against Cumberland. Don Blair led with the most free throws and the most rebounds with eleven and eighteen respectively.

This year saw the beginning of a Pepsi Invitational Tournament at Pikeville with Georgia Southern winning it and Don Blair and Terry Epling being placed on the all tournament team.

At the end of the season Terry Epling was placed on the all KIAC Team.

With only P. D. Scott graduating, this should mean a strong squad for next year's cage battles.

Men's intramural, with approximately sixty per cent of the men students participating experienced a good year under the guidance of athletic director, Laney Yelverton. The program now includes seven sports with football, basketball, and softball leading in participation. Awards are given for championship teams, and those men with a large number of merits are honored at the annual athletic banquet.

Intramurals for women are sponsored throughout the year by the women's athletic association. Inter-collegiate competition in women's sports was also started this year and appears to be gaining favor.
